

DUE APRIL 18TH

Scenario 2 all answers must be half page answers

Jeff and his best friend, Steven go to different high schools. They've been friends since third grade, but since Jeff transferred to another school for 10th grade, they've started to grow apart.

One Saturday, Steven asked Jeff if he would drive him into the nearest city. He didn't have his license yet and said he thought it would be fun for them to hang out. Jeff felt uncomfortable saying yes because he'd only had his license for six months and his parents told him he wasn't allowed to drive into the city yet. But Steven said that he wouldn't be able to go without Jeff's help and they never got to see each other anymore. Jeff agreed and they left that afternoon after telling Jeff's parents they were driving to another friend's house.

When they got to the city, Steven asked Jeff to drive across town to a particular address. When they arrived, Steven asked Jeff to wait in the car while he ran inside for a few minutes. After Steven returned to the car Jeff asked what was going on and Steven pulled out a bag of white powder. He admitted it was his drug connection and that the powder was crystal meth. When Jeff asked him why he didn't tell him that was why they came to the city. Steven said he didn't tell him because he figured Jeff wouldn't go.

That night Jeff couldn't sleep because he felt overwhelmed by what he had found out. He knew meth was no good and that Steven would continue using it with or without his help. He was angry that Steven had put him in the position of driving with an illegal substance, but even more importantly, he was worried about his friend.

Jeff had promised Steven he wouldn't tell anyone about all this, but it was driving him crazy. He had a teacher at school he really liked and trusted. He wanted to go to him and ask his advice. But what if the teacher decided to turn in his best friend? Jeff was torn about how best to protect Steven.

What would you do in this scenario? Would you remain quite to remain loyal to your friend? Would you tell someone you trust (family, friend)? Would you seek help?
